BELGIAN DRAFT HORSE CORPORATION OF AMERICA BOARD GRIEVANCE PROCESS

The Belgian Draft Horse Corporation of America Board of Directors evaluates grievances submitted by members for matters directly relating to the registration, transfer, membership, breed registry process, and any other business. Grievances to the Board of Directors shall be informal, and rules of evidence, both at common law or provided by Indiana rules of civil or criminal evidence, need not be strictly observed. The standard by which admissibility is determined is whether the evidence is such that an ordinarily prudent person is willing to rely upon it. As a Belgian Draft Horse Corporation of America member the person or persons appealing to the Board of Directors, agrees that all witnesses and participants in an appeal shall be immune from any civil liability whatsoever, including, but not limited to, libel, slander, invasion of privacy or defamation for information given in the course of the preparation for the appeal. All of the above shall also apply to anyone who a grievance has been filed against. Further, Article X of the Bylaws, entitled "Violation of Rules or Bylaws; Impositions of Sanctions and Suspensions" will apply to the process and should be reviewed by anyone filing a grievance or by anyone a grievance has been filed against. To file a grievance, one has to be a member. To become a member, please contact the Corporation Office.
